13 Important Notes

1. Applications are complete only when all required fields are filled online and original documents are submitted by mail or in person by the application deadline.
2. Applicants with dual nationality or without any nationality are not eligible.
3. Email and phone number must be the applicant's own; any disadvantages resulting from incorrect or third-party information are the applicant's responsibility.
4. Submitted documents must be scanned in color and submitted online in PDF format. Originals must be submitted by mail or in person. Documents in languages other than Korean or English must be submitted with notarized Korean or English translations.
5. Failure to submit required documents by the deadline, even after completing the online application, will result in disqualification.
6. If copies are submitted, originals must be submitted by the deadline. Discrepancies between copies and originals, or any forgery/falsification, may result in cancellation of admission.
7. Inquiries about the arrival of mailed documents will not be answered, and submitted documents will not be returned.
8. If original academic documents cannot be submitted due to visa issuance, notarized copies may be submitted first, with originals submitted later.
9. Additional documents may be requested during the review process; failure to submit may result in disqualification.

10. If the applicant's name differs across submitted documents, a court-issued certificate from the relevant country proving identity must be submitted.
11. Any bank fees incurred for tuition refunds to unsuccessful applicants are the applicant's responsibility.
12. Final admission is granted only to applicants who receive visa approval. Applicants whose visas are not confirmed before the semester start are deferred to the next semester.
13. All admitted students must enroll in student insurance in Korea.
14. This guideline is prepared in Korean, English, Chinese, Mongolian, and Vietnamese. In case of discrepancies, the Korean version prevails.
